NOW WANT A NEW CHARTER

Geneseo Would Like Chance to Settle License Question by Vote.

Some of the members of the Geneseo board of aldermen are studying up charters with a view of attempting to secure a new charter for the city. They say the present charter has gray whiskers and is entitled to a seat in the chimney corner, and that very few cities in Illinois are now being conducted under this antiquated document. They want a charter which will take the license question from the board of aldermen and settle it by the direct vote of the people.
